LETTER FROM THE CHAIRMAN

The Honorable Andrew M. Cuomo,
Governor of the State of New York
Members of the New York State Legislature

On behalf of the trustees of the Agriculture and New York State Horse Breeding Development Fund, I am pleased to present the Fund's 2011 Annual Report.

New York ranks among the nation's largest farming states with agriculture being one of our state's leading domestic economic sectors. The Fund's primary mission is to foster agriculture through the promotion of Standardbred horse breeding and the conduct of equine research in New York State. Through the reinstatement of breeder awards, the Fund injected more than $1.2 million directly into the New York equine sector of agriculture in 2011.

The interest in and popularity of New York-bred Standardbred yearlings continues unabated at sales and auctions across the country. Additionally, champion horses continue to call New York home, including the 2011 Three Year Old Pacing Colt of the Year, Roll With Joe, and the 2011 Hambletonian winner, Broad Bahn. As a result, the world's best broodmares come to New York to breed. In 2011, more than 1,600 such mares came to New York, providing another significant boost to New York's agriculture sector.

The Agriculture & New York State Horse Breeding Development Fund administers the New York Sire Stakes, the nation's oldest harness racing program of its kind. In 2011 more than 1,100 yearlings were nominated to the Sire Stakes program, which is responsible for 2,800 New York-based jobs with an annual payroll of $125 million. The racing opportunities for Standardbred horses in New York include seven pari-mutuel harness tracks, the Goshen Historic Track and 22 county fairs across the state. The New York Sire Stakes has long been an essential part of our state's fairs, which are the foundation of harness racing.

The Agriculture and New York State Horse Breeding Development Fund expects to continue to support the breeding of world-class horses in New York state and to further enhance our state's vital agricultural community.

Respectfully Submitted,

John D. Sabini, Chairman
Agriculture and NYS Horse Breeding Development Fund

COUNTY FAIR, 4-H & EQUINE RESEARCH CONTRIBUTIONS

The Agriculture & New York State Horse Breeding Development Fund is mandated by law to provide monetary contributions to New York State county fairs for capital improvement projects, to the statewide 4-H program for its standardbred development program and to a fund of a land grant university within this state with a regents approved veterinary college facility. Below is a summary of the Fund's contributions to each in 2011.

COUNTY FAIRS

During 2011 the Agriculture and New York State Horse Breeding Development Fund (the Fund) provided $132,000 to the 22 agricultural fairs that continue to conduct harness racing. By law these funds must be used for maintenance and repairs of racing and other fair facilities. These renovation monies were in addition to $44,000 provided to administer the races and $533,710 in funding for purses contested for in the County Fair Division of the New York Sire Stakes Program.

EQUINE RESEARCH

In 2011 the Fund provided $332,692 to the Harry M. Zweig Memorial Fund for Equine Research at Cornell University, the state's sole land grant university. By law, this money is used by the University's College of Veterinary Medicine to fund medical research including equine reproduction issues, embryonic stem cell research, and more.

4-H CLUBS

The Fund contributed $65,073 for broad-based support to the statewide 4-H program centered at Cornell University, helping to provide youngsters with educational opportunities and information on possible careers within the breeding and racing industries.

Cornell Cooperative Extension staff, volunteers, industry professionals, various colleges, and networking organizations work collaboratively to educate youth and adults about the equine industry with activities such as tours of regional harness tracks and racing and breeding facilities.

Standardbred Day Clinics are held at Standardbred farms, county show grounds and fairgrounds, county farms and local schools. Support from the Fund helps to underwrite costs associated with supplies and training for 4-H staff members, including educational materials, the NYS 4-H Horse Program newsletter "Unbridled Thoughts."

The Fund also supports "The Kids and Horse Tent" at the State Fair at Syracuse. This tent is managed by volunteers and staffed by 4-H youth.

PUBLICITY & MARKETING

The Fund continued its branding campaign with online and print marketing and promotional events at race tracks.

The Fund included social media in its marketing mix in 2011. The NYSS Facebook Page, www.facebook.com/NYSireStakes, offers fans a place to discuss NYSS news and events, look at race photos or upload their own photos. The NYSS Twitter feed, www.twitter.com/NYSireStakes, gives followers realtime updates about the Fund and its Sire Stakes program.

Updates to the Fund's website, www.nysirestakes.com, include social networking tools to engage users by allowing them to share their favorite news items via email or social networking sites, such as Facebook, myspace, and newsvine. The site also utilizes Google Calendars to provide the racing and staking schedules. This enables users to download the calendars to their mobile phone or desktop calendars.

2011 BREEDERS' AWARDS PROGRAM

PERFORMANCE BASED PROGRAM

The performance based program provides awards at all levels of the New York Sire Stakes Racing Program. Eligible recipients are those individuals or farms who bred a money-earning horse that raced in the NYSS Program.

In 2011, 340 breeders shared a total of $1,249,809 in performance-based Breeders' Awards.

Payments to the breeder of each horse are calculated based upon a preset breeders' awards chart that is established by the Development Fund at the end of each purse year. The chart is calculated on NYSS gross purses and allocates breeders' awards in descending amounts, similar to purses, for finish positions one through five.

Due to the nature in which the Development Fund receives its funding, award amounts available each year depend upon the Fund's actual revenue.

RESIDENCY BONUS PROGRAM

The Residency Bonus Awards requirements continued during the 2011 breeding season with the first Residency Bonus Awards to be paid in 2012 for eligible horses racing as two-year-olds.

To be eligible, breeders must certify that the mare was resident in New York State for 180 continuous days during the breeding year at a breeding farm where the mare was bred to a New York eligible stallion resulting in a New York-bred foal. A Residency Bonus is awarded to breeders whose resident mares' progeny race in the NYSS as a two- and/or three-year-old and finish in positions one through five.

The total Residency Bonus pool is divided into three pools according to level of racing: Sire Stakes/State Fair, 70%; Late Closers, 20%; and County Fairs, 10%. Each residency pool amount is divided by the total number of resident horses who finished in the money for that race season. Breeders of a resident horse will receive a "flat" bonus amount according to race level.
